Sansaara Pathe

Today, after seeing all of you, a divine inspiration has risen within me. It is my advice that you practice living a disciplined life. If you have taken shelter under me, then do that properly. Before offering puja or aarati to me, do learn the prescribed way for how to worship. To all devotees present here, for learning it properly and rehearsing, you should establish the idol of Sri Gurudev at your home and worship Him per the diction pertaining to your region, recite the stotra bandana and try to understand its meaning. Congregate on a specific day every week to perform arti, stotra bandana and read Arya darpana and similar books. Collectively discuss my bhava. After each session of the sangha, the gurubhai who will host the next session must duly invite the rest. If this arrangement is not convenient then hold all sessions at a fixed location. All gurubhais must contribute funds every month, and use it in the service of the poor and downtrodden for the purpose of purification of mind (chittashuddhi). Sangha puja sessions should be solely dedicated for discussions pertaining to dharma. Establish sangha shakti in this way. Visit nearby sangha and sammilani (congregation of devotees), intently observe and be united. Live the life of an ideal householder. Householders have more fear and respect for religion than ascetics, and are therefore more spiritually advanced. If you lead a pious householder's life, your children will also develop a noble character. Great seers like Vyasa, Vashistha and Jaimini will be born in your homes. You should exchange your spiritual feelings with each other. Maintain truth and simplicity among yourselves and pray with an open heart near me. Anyways, today is my birthday; I hope whatever I told you about establishing sangha shakti on this auspicious day, you will never forget to put it into practice.
