Sansara Pathe

Since for a long time there has been discontinuation of any education regarding maintenance of brahmacharya in India, it has led to many adversarial situations in the Hindu society now; therefore, we need to have perseverance and proceed in our field of work. Holy Men, noble men, rich people, learned people, workers, students, and parents should put joint efforts so that our children receive appropriate education to accept that charge, and that should be the life's mission for everyone who loves the nation. By forgetting our personal limitations, if we can take up this great vow, then the progress of individual families and the Hindu society as a whole is guaranteed.

In order to practice Brahmacharya, it is obligatory to observe rules and disciplines. Without following the rules, no one can progress in the path of spirituality. India is the land of spirituality. You all try to move forward in the path of spirituality. You all take up the seat of guru in this world. The western world is progressing in the material aspect. You all try to exchange your riches with them.
